

Meet the Speakers

Ms. Brandi Anderson, CPIA, CIC, EIS

Brandi Anderson started her insurance career with a Direct Writer before transferring over to the independent agency system. She has worked as a personal lines CSR, as well as a Vice President of a mid-sized agency. Brandi currently handles marketing in Arkansas for Nationwide Insurance and was the 2017 Sales Manager of the year for that company.

Brandi has taught various commercial and personal education courses over the last 15 years. She has given multiple Errors & Omissions presentations and acted as an expert witness in several court cases. She has written Ethics programs for the IIA of Arkansas as well as coverage courses for the PIA.

-----

Mr. Scott A. Treen, CPIA, CIC

Scott Treen is the President of Treen Insurance Agency in Jefferson, Ohio. He has more than 30 years of experience as an insurance professional. He earned a bachelor's degree from Youngstown State university in 1981 and holds the CPIA designation and earned his CIC designation in 1999.

Scott received the Jack V Hedges Educator of the year award in 2007 from the Professional Insurance Agents of Ohio and is on the National Faculty for the National Alliance. Scott has taught for CISR, CIC, LUTCF and other professional development courses and speaks to various civic groups. He has also taught insurance related curriculum to high school students. He was past president of the Ashtabula County Life Underwriters Association.

---

Ms. Lisa Worley, CIC, CPIA, ARM

After earning a B.A. degree from Samford University and working in the banking industry, Lisa Worley entered the insurance business in 1986. She joined her father, C.W. "Bill" Worley as his perpetuation agreement. Lisa served as President of Anchor Insurance Agency, Inc. from 1991 until December 2016.

In January 2017, Anchor Insurance Agency and Pardue and Associates became Anchor Pardue Insurance, Inc. Lisa serves as CEO and Richard Pardue as President. Lisa is a lifelong learner and shares her love of learning by teaching for many state associations. In addition to teaching, Lisa enjoys reading, traveling, and cheering on the Crimson Tide!

